About Professor BONG

Introducing Professor Armando "Bong" E. Escobedo, distinguished as the lead professor at the Escobedo-Extension Manila Campus of the Philippine Christian University (PCU), where he oversees the BSREM, MMREM, MMPA, and MBA programs. Professor Bong boasts an impressive academic background, having successfully completed programs in BSREM, MMREM, MBA, and is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Real Estate Management. He's not just an educator; he's a mentor, shaping eager minds into Real Estate Brokers, Appraisers, and Consultants. Renowned within the industry for his unwavering commitment to both personal learning and effective instruction, he's accredited as a lecturer at CRESAR, and PRC, both institution dedicated to advancing real estate education. Professor Bong travels, sharing his expertise with individuals striving to realize their ambitions of becoming a real estate practitioner.

He understands that a blend of real estate expertise and top-notch education is the key to success in this field. That's why, in 2018, he introduced a program designed to help individuals who are second courser to complete their BSREM in just 12 months!

But here's the real excitement: It's a Trimester Program for seasoned Practitioners. This program is tailor-made for the go-getters, the practitioners eager to share insights, and ignite the Real Estate fire in others. It's a journey of knowledge-sharing, a playground for best practices, and a launchpad for turning eager individuals into true Real Estate champions!

Brace yourselves for a Real Estate revolution! Professor Bong's powerhouse programs are your ticket to skyrocketing success. Don't let this golden opportunity slip through your fingers. Enroll now and let's launch your journey to the stars, together!
